Peru Public Library

Teen Advisory Group

Meets: Last Friday of Every month

Time: 3:30-4:45

Where: Lower Level Meeting Room

Why: Help the TAG Advisor make the library more useful and fun place for teens to be!

Mission

TAG fosters involvement making the library useful and fun for teens while providing volunteer opportunities. TAG suggests material, programming and services for the library.

The Peru Public Library strives to create a teen-friendly space that allows them to express their opinions, make friends and connect with the community.

Membership

TAG Membership is open to any individual between the ages of 12 and 18.

They must submit an agreement form signed by themselves and a parent/guardian.

Member requirements:

- Between the ages of 12 and 18
- Commit to serving a 1-year term through active involvement
- Make every effort to attend 9 of 12 TAG meetings each year
- Assist with a minimum of 6 Teen Programs per year
- Contact the TAG Advisor if unable to attend a scheduled meeting/event
- Conduct themselves according to the TAG Code of Conduct

Benefits

Earning volunteer hours that count towards community service requirements, meeting other teens who love to read, getting experience to add to college applications and resumes and more!
