Peru library patrons living at the same household address may be connected or linked in the library's patron database, allowing linked individuals to pick up holds for others at the same Peru household address. A library card or photo identification will be required when picking up holds for another family member. By checking the above box, I authorize this linkage for my family. I must notify library staff with the names of household members to link, and each name provided must have a library card. Please list names to be linked on back of this form. I agree to obey the rules and regulations of the Peru Public Library. Failure to do so will result in the loss of library privileges such as borrowing and/or computer access. I accept responsibility for all items borrowed against my account and all fines and fees incurred. I must present my library card to check out materials or use computers.
